THE NUMISMATIC LITERATURE IN THE PRINCES CZARTORYSKI LIBRARY, OR “XIEGI, Z KTÓRYCH DOSKONAŁĄ POWZIĄĆ INFORMACYĄ I WIADOMOŚĆ
MOŻNA W SCYENCYI NUMISMATYCZNEY”

The article is concerned with the numismatic literary materials preserved as part of the Princes Czartoryski Library in Krakow and with the connections between the numismatic collection and the Princes Czartoryski Library. Particular focus is given to old prints, and lists are provided of the 16th- and 17th-century prints dealing with medallic art and numismatics. The author devotes particular attention to the work entitled Wizerunk y szacunek mynic wszelakich cudzoziemskich, (...) przez sławnego Kaspra Rytiera, published in Krakow in 1600. The copy in the collection of the Princes Czartoryski Library, the only surviving copy of this work, was used to create two re-editions of the work in 1883 and 1965.
